Programming is delivered through three principal campuses in Regina, Saskatoon, and Prince Albert, plus eight Career Centres and a number of learning centres located across the province. SIIT also operates the Saskatchewan Aviation Learning Centre at the Saskatoon airport governed by First Nations leaders and representatives from across the province, SIIT strives to be the institute of choice for First Nation learners. Building relationships and partnerships with a growing range of industry leaders, professional associations and academic institutions.

Programs include:

- Trades and Industrial
- Business and Technology
- Health and Community Studies

The Scholarship Award

The Saskatchewan Indian Institute of Technologies offers a $1000 award for any Princess Graduate attending a full-time academic program at SIIT. The program must be 32 weeks or longer in length. Only students accepted, enrolled and registered with SIIT are eligible. The award money must first be applied to any outstanding tuition or fees owed to SIIT first.

The Application

Any Princess Graduate who has applied to and is accepted to a post-secondary program or course offered through SIIT may apply for this award.

Applications must include:

- A completed application form, which is provided with this sheet.

In order to receive the scholarship, the applicant must agree to provide a confirmation of enrolment within the first month of starting your program or course. Courses must start within three (3) months of being selected as the recipient of the scholarship.

Other Financial Assistance

There are many different options available for students to cover the costs of further education, including student loans and other scholarship opportunities. If you would like advice on filling out student loan applications, finding other scholarships or putting together a plan for going to school, get in touch with The Princess Shop's Next Chapter Program Coordinator or with any volunteer. We'll assist with filling in forms, printing up applications, or helping you think of references and resources.
